Case called for settlement conference. Parties inform that they have talked settlement. Plaintiff submitted a settlement demand which was answered by defendants and rejected by the plaintiffs. A second offer was made by defendants which was also rejected by plaintiffs.

The Court met separately with the parties in an attempt to see if a settlement could be reached but it was to no avail.

Court refers the motion for summary judgment to Magistrate Arenas for Report and Recommendation.

Another settlement conference will be set after the Magistrate issues his Report and Recommendation.

Parties to be notified.
